MINNESOTA CONTEST

Question of Republican Nominee for Governor Hinges on Chairman's Decision.

St. Paul, June 29.—The question of who will be the Republican nominee for governor of Minnesota appears to hinge upon the decision of Senator M. E. Clapp, who, as presiding officer of the convention, will rule whether or not contesting delegates will be allowed to vote on the adoption of the report of the committee on credentials. Each of the principal contestants, Judge Loren W. Collins, of St. Cloud, and former Auditor Robert C. Dunn, of Princeton, believe the decision of the temporary chairman will be in his favor. Over 300 votes in the convention are involved in the contests. As both elements have agreed upon temporary organization, the first test of strength will come on adoption of the credentials committee report. A majority of the delegates are not favorably inclined to a proposed bill and nomination of two tickets. Congressman Eddy, however, thinks there will be a double-header convention.

TRIED TO KILL HUSBAND.

Kansas City, June 29.—Temporarily insane and resisting an attempt to send her to a hospital, Mrs. Margaret Morris fatally cut her husband, Isaac F. Morris, a packing house employee, at their home here to day with a razor. Morris fought desperately with his wife for fifteen minutes in an attempt to escape. The woman barred the door and slashed him in a fearful manner, cutting gashes in his throat and arms and on several parts of his body. Morris only escaped by jumping through a window.

BEATEN TO DEATH.

Little Falls, Minn., June 29.—Frank Winmar, aged 50, a Polish farmer living in Pike creek township, was murdered some time last night. The body was found lying on a bed room floor, the head having been pounded to a pulp with a club. The walls were splattered with blood and blood stained finger marks on the floor and wall showed that a desperate struggle had taken place. His wife, aged 26, is held on circumstantial evidence, though she claimed the deed was that of tramps.

A DISRUPTION

Trouble Among Member of London Liberal Union Club.

London, June 29.—A significant political development is the disruption of the Liberal Union club to day. Trouble arose over a resolution to send representatives to the liberal Unionist council. By a majority of 108, composed of the followers of Joseph Chamberlain, the club decided to be represented in the council; and when the result was announced sixty-four members immediately withdrew and formed a new club under the name of the Liberal Union Free Trade club. The liberal Union has been recognized as a powerful organization, though roughly representative of the liberal Unionist party.

SURRENDER TO CORONER.

New York, June 29.—Several directors of the Knickerbocker Steamboat company, all of whom are charged with responsibility for the Slocum horror, surrendered to the coroner, who admitted them to bail to await the action of the grand jury. Secretary Atkinson and Director Corbin surrendered to the coroner this afternoon. Corbin was released in $5,000 bail. The coroner declined to accept bail for Atkinson until he surrendered the books of the company, which were produced at the hearing. Atkinson was detained until the books were produced, when he was released on $5,000 bonds.

The coroner received a telephone message from a lawyer in Brooklyn asking him to withhold the serving of the warrant on Captain Peace until to morrow morning, when he would surrender himself. The coroner declined and said Peace would be arrested as soon as he could be found.

PROHIBITION CONVENTION

NATIONAL GATHERING AT INDIANAPOLIS

Party's Keynote Sounded by Temporary Chairman—Meeting Held to Boom Nomination of General Miles.

Indianapolis, June 29.—The tenth national prohibition convention was called to order to day in Tomlinson hall by National Chairman Oliver W. Stewart. Four thousand delegates, alternates and visitors were present. The hall was decorated with the national colors. Over the platform hung pictures of Abraham Lincoln, Clinton B. Fiske, Frances Willard and Hale Johnson.

After the opening prayer by Rev. George H. Cooke, of Sandusky, Ohio, the chairman introduced W. S. Doane, who welcomed the delegates on behalf of the prohibitionists of the state. When he mentioned the name of General Miles there was a burst of applause, and as he concluded three cheers were given for Doane.

Chairman Stewart made a brief reply and introduced Homer L. Castle, of Pittsburg, as temporary chairman. In his address, Castle, after touching upon the question of polygamy, saloons, a uniform system of marriage and divorce laws, trusts, acquisition of the Philippines and other outlying islands, all of which he said had not been dealt with from the standpoint of a statesman, but always as a politician, continued:

"Where is there a political aggregation that can be trusted to cope with these evils? Shall it be that crowd of insane bewitched men who gathered last week in Chicago to do the bidding of the hero of bloodless San Juan and placed a Democratic secretary in charge of their national committee, and coaxed some one of even semi-national reputation to agree to run to this dissembler of every trust except the whisky trust? By no manner of means. Men who, as senators, have not the courage to send back to Utah its much married Snoot can never be trusted to cope with the evil whose talons are sunk deep in every municipality in this broad land.

"Shall we trust that crowd of uncaged hyenas, who will converge next week in St. Louis, and whose chief occupation seems to be to dig in some graveyard, uncovering the bones of some bygone dead issue and failing to find substance upon these they turn to vend each other, apparently caring nothing for the peace and dignity and preservation of the nation in their desire to gnaw at each other's throat? By no manner of means. Nor shall we wait to see what they will do, for a Democratic convention can always be trusted to do the wrong thing at the right time."

Castle concluded by saying there never was a clearer call for a party who could stand before the American people sure of the need of the land, positive of its position on public questions and fearless in its espousal of the cause of the right.

After announcement of committees was read a recess was taken until 2 o'clock. President Francis has extended an invitation to the convention to attend the St. Louis exposition.

The committee on permanent organization selected A. G. Wolfenberger, of Lincoln, Neb., permanent chairman, and W. G. Golderwood, of Minneapolis, permanent secretary.

The prohibitionists to day selected the national committee. Among the members are: Illinois—O. W. Stewart and F. S. Regan. Indiana—F. T. McWhirter and Charles Eckart. Iowa—A. U. Coats and Malcolm Smith. Michigan—Samuel Dickie and F. W. Corbett. Minnesota—B. E. Haugen and George W. Higgins. Missouri—Charles E. Stokes and H. P. Paris.

The new national committee organized to night by electing Oliver W. Stewart, of Chicago, chairman; vice chairman, A. G. Wolfenberger, Lincoln, Neb.; secretary, James A. Tate, Harrison, Tenn.; treasurer, Samuel Dickie, of Albion, Mich. It is stated by an official of the committee that a majority is opposed to the nomination of Miles and in favor of a single issue platform.

At the evening session short addresses were made by several delegates. A song advocating Miles' nomination caused an enthusiastic demonstration. The resolutions committee not being ready to report, the convention adjourned until to morrow.

BOOM FOR MILES.

Indianapolis, June 29.—The boom for Miles for the prohibition nominee for president was given a decided forward movement by a public meeting of delegates and visitors at the state house this afternoon. Alonzo E. Wilson, of Illinois, state chairman, presided. John G. Woolley, of Chicago, editor of the Voice, gave evidence as to Miles' position. He said he had been in close communication with Miles during the past six weeks and that he told Miles he was coming to Indianapolis to assist in his nomination unless he forbade it. Miles made no objection.

VIOLATION OF OBLIGATIONS

NO PETEX FOR PROTECTION FROM U. S.

Hayti May Furnish Sufficient Apology to France and Germany Since It Cannot Look to This Country for Intervention.

Washington, June 29.—It is said that the department never has taken the ground that smaller republics were to be protected by the United States either against reclamation by European powers for violated contractual obligations or against proper demand arising out of violations of international obligations, such as it is alleged is involved in the attack on foreign ministers by Haytian soldiers. So, if the demands made on Hayti by France and Germany are not excessive or oppressive, in the judgment of the state department, there will be no interference by this government, but developments will be watched with keen interest to see that the line is properly drawn and undue punishment not inflicted. It is not doubted the Haytian government will supplement its inadequate letter of apology by punishing the guilty guards when it realizes it cannot look for intervention by this country.

REPORT OF BATTLE

Fighting Between Rebels and Government Forces at Bago, Brazil.

Buenos Ayres, June 29.—Dispatches from Bago, a Brazilian town near the Uruguayan frontier, says a courier arrived there with a report of the battle at Tupamao, Uruguay. Fighting began on Wednesday last week and continued the following day. The government had 600 killed and 800 wounded; the revolutionists 100 killed and 600 wounded. The revolutionists captured a large quantity of war supplies. The revolutionary force under Mariano Sotavia, brother of the leader of the revolution, is pursuing the government troops under General Bonaventura. The revolutionists occupy excellent positions.

Wisconsin Day Celebrated at Exposition Wednesday.

St. Louis, June 29.—Wisconsin day was celebrated at the Louisiana purchase exposition to day. Governor LaFollette and staff were met at the depot and escorted to the administration building, where the party was joined by President Francis and a military escort. There was a parade to the Wisconsin state building, where a program of music and addresses was carried out. The building was presented to the exposition by ex-Gov. W. E. Hoard, president of the Wisconsin state board of managers, who made an address, as did also President Francis, Governor LaFollette, Congressman Adams and Hon. Kirby Thomas.

LATEST DOWIE FREAK.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., June 29.—The cow that Farmer Alvin Smith has been praying over a week past is dead. Smith contended the cow could be cured by prayer, and he held daily prayers over the beast as she lay in the barn. Smith is a believer in Dowieism. He had asked the elders and others in Dowie's ballwalk to pray for the cow's recovery. Yesterday he sent them this message: "Stop praying; she is dead."

HARVARD-YALE REGATTA.

New Haven, Conn., June 29.—The annual Harvard-Yale regatta is scheduled for to morrow, and to night the town is thronged with visitors. During the early hours to night practically no bets of importance were registered. The prevailing odds were on Yale at 2 to 1. In the toss for position Harvard won all three choices. Weather prospects to night are unfavorable.

DEPORTED MINERS.

Denver, June 29.—Thirty-nine men, deported from Cripple Creek last night, under military escort, arrived in the city to day, joining the colony of 200 exiles already established here. NATIONAL EDUCATORS

Address of O. J. Kern on Educational Possibilities of Country Child in United States.

St. Louis, June 29.—At to day's session of the National Educational association the first speaker was Capt. Percy Atkins, in charge of the British education exhibit at the exposition. He discussed the topic, "Popular Education in England."

O. J. Kern, superintendent of schools of Winnebago county, Rockford, Ill., was the next speaker. He discussed at length "Educational Possibilities for a Country Child in the United States." He said, in part: "The country school of its kind should be just as good as the best city school for the most favored child. It should not be the same kind of school, with the same course of instruction. There is a difference of environment, which must be considered. The school training should relate more to daily life. Let us give the country school all the credit possible, for its work in the past. It has done a great work and will yet do a greater work. But there is vast room for improvement. "There are two great movements, at least, now operating in the new education for the country child, if it may be called a new education, which give us a glimpse of the educational possibilities. The first has to do with the spirit of the child, the school and the home and the second has to do with the environment of the child, a consideration of the farm interests as educational factors.

"By the awakening of the spirit I mean the soul culture that will enable the child to thirst for and enjoy the best of the civilization of the age. It is the country child's right to be brought into contact with the best music, literature and art. There should be no discrimination between the child living in the field and the child on the boulevard in this respect. There is plenty of hard work on the farm, much that is necessary, perhaps, and no insignificant factor in the education of the individual to a life of usefulness. But the child's education can impart a spiritual force that will give freedom from the slavery of toil. This spiritualizing force that will lead to more attractive farms and comfortable homes, better reading in the homes, has its beginning in the improvement of the material environment of the country school; by this is meant the outdoor art movement for more attractive school grounds. The indoor art movement is bringing more attractive school rooms for the country child. There are great possibilities in the library movement.

YALE COMMENCEMENT.

New Haven, Conn., June 29.—Formal commencement exercises and the annual alumni dinner were the two chief features of to day's program at Yale. Among the recipients of honorary degrees bestowed was Charles Richard Van Hosen, president of the University of Wisconsin. Nearly a thousand Yale graduates attended the alumni dinner this afternoon. It is alleged pecuniations have extended over a period of three years, during which time the bank examiners have several times gone over the affairs of the bank and reported all correct. When a shortage was finally discovered by a special bank examiner, Plain was arrested. He waived examination and was held to the July term of the federal grand jury under bonds of $10,000. Plain has turned over all his private accounts to the directors of the bank and his father and brother have made good a part of the deficit. The capital stock of the institution is unimpaired and is in excellent shape to withstand any run that may develop as a result of Plain's shortage.

Bradley, of Eaton Rapids, will be nominated for auditor. His opponent is E. A. Widy, of Paw Paw. FAIRBANKS AND HIS LIFE

Republican Vice Presidential Candidate Has Had Interesting Career—Self-Made Man.

The following interesting sketch of the career of Charles W. Fairbanks, Republican candidate for vice president, is taken from Frank Leslie's Magazine for July:

In the latter half of 1852, and in the year or two following, a plain countrywoman, the wife of a farmer and wagon maker of little worldly store, rocked a queer-looking cradle in a little log cabin in the woods of Union county, Ohio. It was one of those modest little cabins, such as those in which were built such sturdy characters as Lincoln, Grant and Garfield. The cradle was a queer-looking contrivance—a sugar trough skillfully mounted on home-made rockers.

The parents were poor, and the boy was put to work early. First it was the chores that he was delegated to do, then he gave assistance in the harvest fields, and was later advanced to work behind the plow and to serving as assistant to his father in wagon making. The parents—the elder Fairbanks—were God-fearing Methodists, who, having endowed their son with massive physical frame and force, sought early to make him mentally and morally sound. The district school and the circuit church were the facilities at hand, and though the term of school was less than five months and the preacher came at irregular intervals, these facilities, supplemented by wholesome home training were effective in laying the foundation of sterling character and a strong, moral backbone.

Young Fairbanks, by farm work and wagon making, had saved $41 by the time he reached the age of 16 years. With it and one suit of clothes he traveled to Delaware, Ohio, where he entered Ohio Wesleyan university. The necessity of closely guarding his $41 led to a rooming and "bitching" alliance with another ambitious young man. Their culinary education was limited to the preparation of baked potatoes, mush, bread and butter cakes. On this—mainly butter cakes—they lived. He turned to account his rudimentary knowledge of carpentry by working on Saturdays for a local contractor for $1.25 a day. His employer was a colored man and all of his co-workers were colored.

A few weeks after young Fairbanks arrived at college he fell and split his only trousers beyond immediate repair. It was necessary for him to borrow a pair from a fellow student, and the loan had to be continued because he was denied credit for a new pair at the stores in the town. He had to send home for his mother to make him another pair.

Working in college during the college year and in the harvest fields in vacation, he was graduated from the college and its law course at 20 and went to Pittsburgh, where he began reading law while supporting himself by serving the Associated Press. Later he entered a law school at Cleveland, supporting himself in the same manner. At 22 he was admitted to the supreme court of Ohio, and later he went to Indianapolis. There he rose steadily until he became one of the best railroad lawyers in the country. Fairbanks has always had two distinctive characteristics. First, he has always been a Methodist. Second, he has always been a Republican politician. It is a combination hard to beat and Fairbanks knows it.

It was Fairbanks who succeeded Daniel W. Voorhees, "the tall Sycamore of the Wabash," in the senate in 1897. Since that time he has been one of the conspicuous members of congress. He was recognized as one of President McKinley's closest friends and ablest advisers. He has the reputation of being a millionaire. As a matter of fact he does not come in that classification. By capitalists he is known to be conservative, and by them is favored as Roosevelt's running mate on that account. Among the labor element he probably stands even better than Roosevelt. S. N. Sexton, editor of the official journal of the United Mine Workers—the John Mitchell organization—sums up organized labor's estimate of Fairbanks. "Fairbanks," he said, "is one of the few men in public life who has never tried to put us on the back. But labor knows how he votes, and he always votes for its best interests. He has exerted only wholesome influence against unjust legislation proposed by organized labor."

Among newspaper men Fairbanks is known as a man who is always ready to grant favors and glad to talk, but no man in public life understands better than he the delicate distinction between talking and saying something, and say something to a reporter he never does. Among those who do not know him he has the reputation of being cold. His nature is the opposite. To friends he is a true friend. To enemies he is not treacherous. In politics he is a boss. He is a boss through bosses he creates and he manages them and they bear the burden of publicity. Politically he deals with few men. In his own state few realize how absolute is his wish for the word never comes direct from him. While he never has been charged with being a demagogue, he has the character of agreeing with everybody and doing what he maps out himself. In the senate, while others are wasting energy in talk, he accomplishes results by dealing directly with his task.

The senator is of massive but well proportioned stature, standing over six feet. He is a forcible speaker, but cannot be said to be a popular one with the masses, his addresses being far too solid. There are few men who can so clearly define issues and so ably defend or explain them. Mrs. Fairbanks is the president general of the Daughters of the Revolution. She is a woman of grace and accomplishments, and her management of D. A. R. affairs has shown that she has strong executive ability.

ROSCOE CONKLING'S BIG FEE.

It is said, one day when Roscoe Conkling was beginning to attain some measure of success, he dropped into the office of Charles O'Connor, of New York, then one of the leaders of the bar.

"What is the trouble?" asked the latter, as Conkling excitedly paced the floor.

"I've just been subjected to the worst insult I have ever received. This is the first time a client ever objected to my fee."

"You know I defended Gibbons for arson, and put in some tremendous work for him. He was convicted at the trial, but we couldn't help it, and I took the case to the superior court and we lost there; then on to the supreme court and that affirmed the conviction and he has been given ten years. Now my fee only amounted to $300, and the scoundrel actually had the audacity to grumble about it, saying it's too high. What do you think of that for impudence?"

"Well," said O'Connor, slowly, "of course you did a lot of work and $300 is not a big fee; but, to be frank with you, Mr. Conkling, my opinion, founded on mature consideration, is that he might have been convicted for less money."—July Success.

SENSATIONAL LAWSUIT

Being Tried in Macoupin County Court—Father Accused by His Daughters Becomes Hysterical

Carlinville, June 29.—One of the most sensational cases ever tried in the Macoupin county court is being heard by J. B. Vaught and a jury in the probate court.

Fred Leefers, a retired farmer who has been a well known and respected resident of this community for forty years, is the defendant in a petition asking an injunction as to his sanity and asking further that a conservator be appointed to take the management of his property.

A further purpose of the injunction will be to invalidate a number of deeds made two months ago transferred 420 acres of farm land to his three sons. In addition to his land, Mr. Leefers has $25,000 in real estate and personal property, making his estate worth $75,000.

The petitioners are his daughters, six in number, who were not considered in the division of property. Mrs. Leefers is dead and the daughters made sensational charges against their father, affecting his moral character.

The petitioners have occupied two days in presenting their testimony. The defense will be heard to-morrow.

Mr. Leefers is deaf and until to night, when he read typewritten copies of the evidence sworn to by his daughters, was ignorant of the charges made against him. The old man became hysterical as he read the pages of evidence.

Jacksonville, Ill., Aug. 24, 1901.—For twelve years I have suffered from sweet diabetes and have spent hundreds of dollars with various doctors, with but little benefit. I was recommended to try a bottle of Teas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, and will cheerfully testify to the fact that it did me more good than all things else put together and am altogether another man. I have persuaded many of my friends to try it.

80 PER CENT OF THE ADULT POPULATION SUFFER FROM ONE PAINFUL AILMENT.

Think what this means. Imagine the amount of misery that exists and is endured simply because people do not know there is an absolute cure.

The only way to cure any complaint is to remove the cause. There are very few diseases or ailments that can be cured by external application—and piles is not one of them. Piles can be cured; the treatment must, however, be internal, for the cause of piles is an internal disorder of the liver or the bowels. Even catarrh of the stomach and bowels can be cured by Dr. PERRIN'S PILE SPECIFIC, The Internal Remedy. Here is an instance of what this practically infallible remedy will do:

Dr. C. A. Perrin, Helena, Mont.—Dear Sir: I have nearly finished the former bottle of Perrin's Pile Specific and am practically well. My case was one which most physicians would have pronounced incurable, as I was afflicted with a dysentery and compelled to go to the toilet room from three to five times each day and each time would bleed from one-half to one teaspoonful. I had to resort to bandages and absorbent cotton to check the flow of blood, and now the past ten or twelve days there has been no sign of bleeding and my appetite is good; have gained ten pounds in weight and feel like a new lease of life was given me.

Very truly yours,
T. R. HARRIS,
Yerington, Nev.

October 20th, 1902.
Dr. Perrin's Pile Specific is sold by all reliable druggists at $1.00 the bottle, under an absolute guarantee to refund the money should this great internal remedy fail to cure.

WELCOME VISITORS.

Rev. Allan A. Tanner, wife, two sons and one daughter, all of Toledo, Ohio, are in the city for a visit with Mrs. Tanner, mother of the young divine at Woodland place. Mr. Tanner is now engaged in a work of love which he enjoys keenly. With a laudable desire to know more of labor men, their feelings, wants, desires, needs and purposes, he has for some time been mingling with them on a plane of their own and is now connected with a large manufacturing establishment and sometimes during the week, and though it would seem like hard work, he is improving on it and increasing in weight while he is gaining the love and confidence of the many men with whom he is associated. It is certainly a practical manner of preaching the gospel and cannot help having beneficial results. To day he and his wife expect to leave for the world's fair and the children will be left with their grandmother, whose serenity of disposition will have an excellent effect on her beloved descendants. The parents expect to return to Jacksonville for a short visit and then return to the field of labor in the city by Lake Erie.

It costs almost $78,000,000 per annum to pay the bills of the regular army and about $62,000,000 to run
the navy.

According to an exhaustive statistical work by a German, of which the current Harper's Weekly gives an interesting resume, the population of the world to day is 1,503, 300,000.

Congress appropriated in round numbers $753,000,000 to pay the bills
of the government during the year 1904 and $780,000,000 to pay the bills of the year 1905.

If all the bills of the government were paid in silver dollars it would require 22,297 wagons, each loaded with a ton of silver dollars, to haul enough to pay the full amount.

In excluding certain patent medicine circulars from the mails on the ground that they are for fraudulent purposes the postmaster general is undoubtedly acting in the public interest.

A new automobile has been ordered for use upon American roads, which is to have 120 horse power and will probably "do" a mile in 35 seconds. Nice thing to let close on crowded highways!

Away down in Texas, near the Mexican line, they are using automobiles for the pursuit of murderers.
There's sound sense in it, for, as we all know, when a "whizzer" gets after a man there is no escape visible.

Liberty in public and in private life cannot exist without complete justice. Liberty is not the right to do everything we wish to do, but only the right to do all that does not interfere with the rights of others.

Chauncey M. Depew's advice to young men not to go into politics
unless they have plenty of money comes with the ease of one who has never known the lack of a big bank account. Yet there are poor boys to day who will sometime be leaders in the great strenuous profession.

A shortage of telegraph operators is being experienced in a great many railroads. The block system railroads require competent men.
Years ago about all stations had learners assisting, who worked about the depots. That day has passed and there is a wanting of such men at the present time.

SUCCESSFUL
EXCURSIONUnder the Auspices of Knights of Pythias—Over 400 Enjoy
the Trip From This City to Havana.

Four hundred excursionists took advantage of the river trip offered by the Knights of Pythias Wednesday and ten coaches pulled out of the J. & St. L. station yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock comfortably filled with passengers, most of whom carried their lunch.

Jeffries band accompanied the party and furnished a delightful program of music. The boat ride was the most delightful feature of the trip and was thoroughly enjoyed.

The committee on arrangements were so solicitous for the welfare of their party that they came very near being conspicuous by their absence. The train pulled out without the usual "All Aboard" and the committee, Messrs. Henry Smith, John Sibert and J. A. Munson, who were in the ticket office conferring with the railroad officials, did not discover that the train had left until it was crossing the Wabash right of way.
In a pleading way they looked at Acting General Manager George W.
Dye, who took in the situation in a moment, and, suppressing a laugh hurried to the telephone and called the residence of George McGregor.
Mr. McGregor lives on Oak street near the right of way of the Concord road and his wife was asked to flag the train.

In the meantime Clarence McDew started in pursuit of his wheel. He would have overtaken the train at the shops had he not been blocked by a Wabash freight just as he reached the Illinois avenue crossing.
As soon as the freight had passed,
however, he continued on his way
and was gaining on the train, which has a heavy grade to contend with just at the city limits, when the sidewalks gave out and he had to take to the road bed. He tried this for awhile, but the going was too rough either for speed or comfort and abandoning his wheel started to finish the chase on foot. Just as he was within halting distance the train was flagged by Mrs. McGregor.

But to return to the committee.
They were too full for utterance,
but if they had spoken they could not have possibly told of their feelings better than did the expressions
on their disconsolate faces.
They were the picture of despair and disgust. Henry Smith was uttering some inaudible sounds, but the others kept a stolid silence. Finally they started to hot foot it over the ties and were rewarded by finding that the train had been hailed and soon they were fellow passengers with the excursionists who had so ruthlessly departed without them.

The return trip was made without incident worthy of notice and the first excursion over the new road was pronounced by all a grand success.

The excursion train reached here
at 2 o'clock this morning.

President Tebben of the Colonels of the American association has purchased all the tarpania that he could secure in Louisville. With it he will tinuous rain all the afternoon can prevent a game.

Wagner's Jump to Fortune.

The earnings of Hans Wagner (Pittsburg Nationals) on the diamond last year footed up $7,654. That's pretty good for a boy who used to work in coal pits at $3 per week and when he left for his first baseball job had to hunt one of those side door chair cars
to reach Wheeling.

BLIND GIRL SEES FAIR

Pupil of the Jacksonville Institution Writes Regarding Her Experiences at the Exposition.

Colchester, June 29.—To many it would seem that a blind girl could not see the world's fair, but from a letter written by Francis, the 12-year-old daughter of J. O. Moon, of Colchester, who was one of those selected from the Jacksonville school to represent that institution at the fair, it would seem they enjoy things as much as those who are fortunate enough to see with their eyes. The letter said in part:

"Dear Papa: I will now go on with my visits. Thursday afternoon we visited the temple of music. Friday we did not go out because it rained all day. O, yes, Thursday night we took a visit on the pike and saw an elephant. Then we went through an imitation of a street in Calo. Next we went through mysterious Asia.

"I think the Indians are very interesting. The school and village are very near us. The Indians let us feel their bables, their pottery ware, their slippers, clothing, wigwams and everything else imaginable. We are going over to the Indian school in a few days. Saturday we went to a Turkish palace and the glass factory. To day we went through the industrial and transportation buildings. Then we went through a building where all sorts of mines were represented. I am also very much interested in the soldiers. Every morning we are awakened by the bugle call, for they camp very near us. After the bugle call comes 'The Star Spangled Banner,' and then they give their yell, which is something about West Point Military academy.
Friday when it rained so hard and the water was rushing by they sat at the doors of their tents and yelled 'Just this way for the Galveston flood.' Then one fellow got out in the middle of the water on a chair and had his picture taken. We have lots of fun with them. I will have lots to tell you about the soldiers and Indians when I get home.

"Yesterday we saw some of the curiosities of the Indian school and the superintendent let me feel them.
"You ought to hear the funny questions
the people ask us about our work. I am making a pillow case at the present time.
I have lots of fun talking to the deaf and dumb girls. I learned the alphabet from one of the girls, so I talk to them."

MADE GOOD ARRESTS

Captain Kennedy Locks up Culprits Wanted in Springfield and Clinton Illinois—Finds Them in Broadway Alley.

Night Captain Kennedy made a good catch Tuesday night, when he arrested James Smith, alias "Peggy," from the vicinity of Springfield, and William Clark, of Clinton, on suspicion. The men were wanted in Clinton for stealing two sets of harness, and in Springfield for making away with a horse and wagon and a load of junk. The local force had been on the lookout for the men since about April 20, and on the night mentioned Captain Kennedy located them with their outfit in Broadway alley and locked them up pending investigation.

The authorities in Springfield and Clinton were notified of the arrest, and Wednesday morning Chief of Police Henson, of the latter city, came down, accompanied by Mr. Prague, the owner of the harness. The prisoners and the property were at once identified and the chief returned to Clinton with his men on the 8:37 train via the Wabash.

The Springfield authorities have not been here to identify the horse and wagon, which are being held here. Both culprits have police records.

POLICE NEWS.

ATHLETIC EVENTS

Will Be Managed by Prof. Rayhill—An Attractive Program of Events Arranged.

The athletic department of the celebration will be in the hands of Professor Rayhill, as has already been stated, and a good contest is assured. The big event of the day will be the fat man's race. It is probable that this race will be run by men of the required weight and who are used to using their feet when occasion requires. As far as is known at this date, Messrs. Frank Hairgrove, Charles B. Graff, T. H. Buckthorpe and Frank Nelson are the only gentlemen eligible and who are thoroughbreds. If there are any other gentlemen of 200 pounds or over who have a strain of the Kentucky stock in their veins they will be gladly entered in this race. Any one who has even attended an athletic contest knows that the hurdle race is the prettiest race of all. Several gentlemen have made known their intention of joining in this race. The prizes will be beautiful gold and silver badges. This is done that no one shall be classed as a professional. Then there will be the race, once around the square and twice around the square. This will be very exciting, as it is a hard run for a novice to make, although it looks a very short distance.

The obstruction race will be a very funny race, embodying, as it does, some very tedious obstructions to be overcome. The 100 yard dash will be a swift affair, as we have some of the fastest runners in Jacksonville of any town in the state. Then there will be the sack race, and if you want to laugh you certainly will have the chance. There will also be several other minor races that will be very exciting. The way the people are taking hold makes it very evident that we are going to have a hot old time if the weather permits. Come out and bring the children, for remember you were a kid once yourself.

This will be the last week of the Little spinners in Phelps & Osbornes window, see them and read the clearance sale ad. of this firm in to day's paper.

MATRIMONIAL

PRESTON-STICE.

The marriage of Miss Carrie Stice and Mr. Charles A. Preston was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Stice, of Hardin avenue.

The house was becomingly decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and the vows were spoken in the presence of a few immediate friends and relatives. The bride and groom entered the parlor unattended and took their places before Rev. C. F. Baker, who spoke the solemn service in a most happy and impressive manner, using the ring service. At its conclusion the hearty words of congratulations were spoken.

The bride was gowned in a beautiful white lawn, trimmed in lace, and carried a large bouquet of bride's roses.

The bride is a young lady of attractive personality and with her winning ways is well liked by all who know her.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Preston and is a young man of force of character and a good reputation. He has been a butcher a number of years and is now in the employ of A. Leck. His integrity and industry speaks well for his success in life.

Many handsome presents were received, which showed the high esteem in which the bride and groom were held by their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston left on the 3:15 train for Springfield and several other points for a wedding trip of a week or ten days.

SEAVER-RYAN.

The marriage of Miss Loretta Marie Ryan to Mr. Floyd Seaver was celebrated Wednesday, June 22, at the home of the bride in Chicago, Ill. Rev. Father Scanlan officiating.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white muslin de soie over white taffeta and wore a long white tulle veil, draped high on the head with sweet peas, and was unattended. Little Viola Seaver was flower girl, and carried a long stemmed pink rose. Mamie and Luella Seaver, nieces of the groom, were train bearers, and were beautifully gowned in Persian lawn.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Ryan, and is a young lady who stands high in the affections of those who know her best. Mr. Seaver is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Seaver and has been with Swift & Co. for several years past.

Mr. and Seaver are taking a wedding tour through the north and will be at home after July 15th at 7047 Lowe avenue, Chicago.

Among the out of town guests present at the wedding were Mrs. A. Kennedy and daughter, Miss Grace, Miss Bessie King and Earl Vickery, of this city.

VIEIRA-HERBURG.

Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents on Beesley avenue was celebrated the wedding of Miss Mary Lenora Herburg to Mr. Charles J. Vieira. The ceremony was said by Rev. H. Halberberg, of the German Lutheran church, in the presence of about forty guests.

The house was beautifully decorated with roses and sweet peas for the occasion and presented an exceedingly attractive appearance. The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of lavender silk and was accompanied by her sister, Miss Delia Herburg, who was gowned in green silk. The groom was supported by Robert Fortado.

After the ceremony had been said and congratulations had been extended, the guests assembled in the dining room, where a sumptuous wedding supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Vieira are both very estimable young people, who have many friends in the city. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Herburg. The groom is an employ of Ward's book bindery and holds the confidence and respect of all who know him. They will reside in a home already prepared by the groom on Myrtle street.

Mrs. Lilian Vasconcellos and two children, of Bloomington, were here to attend the wedding.

TUCKER-SCOTT.

Married, at 8 p. m., Wednesday evening, at the home of Mrs. Phebe Scott, at Chapin, Mr. Alexander H. Tucker, of St. Louis, and Miss Josie Helen Scott, in the presence of about eighty near relatives and friends.

The house was most beautifully decorated with potted plants, asparagus and cut flowers. The parlor was in green and white, the hall and sitting room were attractive with asparagus and pink roses, while in the dining room the pink and white effect was carried out.

Promptly 8 o'clock the bride and groom unattended entered the parlor to the strains of wedding march from Lohengrin, played by Miss Anna Scott, sister of the bride, and stood before Rev. C. L. Dark, who most impressively pronounced them man and wife. The bride was most daintily gowned in white silk mull over white taffeta silk and carried bride's roses, brooch of pearls and diamonds, the gift of the groom.

Her sister, Miss Anna, wore a handsome gown of green taffeta silk with tan chiffon overdress.

After congratulations had been extended the guests were served with elegant refreshments. The caterers were Vickery & Morigan. A great many elegant presents were tendered the happy couple, among which were cut glass, hand painted china, silver, linen and a handsome piano, the gift of the bride's mother.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Phebe Scott and is well known to many in this city, having attended the Woman's college three years. She is a young lady of attainments and charming personality.

COLONEL BRIGHAM DEAD.

Washington, June 29.—News has been received here of the death at Delta, Ohio, to night of Col. Joseph H. Brigham, assistant secretary of agriculture. Brigham was chairman of the government board at the St. Louis exposition. He had left here Tuesday evening for St. Louis to attend a meeting of the board and had stopped off at Delta for a short visit. He was prominent in Ohio politics and occupied his present position since McKinley's first administration.

SUSTAINS MINERS.

Seranton, Pa., June 29.—In a letter to District President Nichols, of the United Mine Workers, the secretary of the miners' conciliation board, Umpire Carroll D. Wright to day sustained the contention of the miners that it is incumbent on the companies to collect from the miners wages of check weighmen or docking bosses, in accordance with the award of the mine strike commission.

The Seranton, Pennsylvania and Temple companies, employing 20,000 men, refused to collect for check weighmen and docking bosses for wages of such miners as refused to make written assignments authorizing the deduction. None of the managers of the companies would say what they proposed to do about the ruling, but it is generally regarded here as a certainty they will follow Wright's dictum and that the threatened strike is off.

We don't propose to allow summer dullness to get a hold on our business. We're marking Clearing Sale Prices on large quantities of goods much earlier than ever before. The rainy, backward spring has hurt the sale of early summer merchandise and we have decided to sacrifice our profits in order to reduce the stock in short order.
